FAREWELL TAKEN OF CONGREGATION

The Rev. T. J. Newell Completes His Pastorate

Presiding Elder, the Rev. J. W. Blackard, Talks About the Paducah District.

THE REV. T. J. OWEN'S WORK

Impressive farewell services were held Sunday at both church and Sunday school hours at the Broadway Methodist church, marking the close of the Rev. T. J. Newell's four years with this charge.

Large congregations at both church services testified to Dr. Newell's popularity not only with his own people but the many outsiders present as well. The church was decorated with pink and white chrysanthemums and the choir rendered special music. Mrs. Lela Lewis singing a beautiful solo at night.

Dr. Newell spoke briefly at the morning hour on "The Necessity of a Live Religion." A collection was taken before the sermon and occupied much of the hour. Between $300 and $400 was raised at this time to meet some of the church's current expenses for the year.

The evening sermon was a practical and strong talk from a pastor to the people for whom he had lived and labored four years. He spoke for the incoming pastor, and outlined ways he might be helped. He paid fine tributes to his people and to the friends he had made outside of his church.

Dr. Newell stated that he knew nothing whatever of his going to Texas as had been circulated here, but stood ready to go wherever sent as he considered "Methodism the best common sense polity to give the gospel to everyone."

At the close the choir sang "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," and the hundreds present went forward to bid Dr. Newell good-bye. It was a deeply affecting occasion.

Dr. Newell has made a fine record for the church here in his four years' work. Not only has the church been greatly benefited spiritually, but the debt has been reduced over $13,000; a handsome new organ installed, and various other improvements made.

Dr. Newell and his delightful family have made strong friends here both within and without the Broadway church, and much regret has been expressed on their leaving.

Dr. Newell will leave for Ripley, Tuesday morning.

All the Methodist churches held interesting services yesterday preceding the annual conference session. Rev. W. W. Armstrong, of the Trimble street church, preached on "The Church" in the morning and "The Judgment" at night. Mr. Armstrong is closing a three year stay with his congregation, and can remain one more year. His congregation hope that he will be allowed to finish out the limit.

At the Third street church Rev. Peter Fields preached strong sermons. Mr. Fields has been with this church only two years and has done a very fine work.

Paducah District.

The Rev. J. W. Blackard, D. D., presiding elder of the Paducah district Methodist churches will leave this evening for Ripley, Tenn., where the Memphis conference will convene at 9 a. m. Wednesday. Dr. Blackard is one of the eight presiding elders constituting the "Bishop's Cabinet," and these will hold a meeting tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at Ripley. They are the bishop's advisers and stand between him and the churches. They aid him in assigning the appointments for the new conference year and are important and representative men. They are always chosen from among the leading men of the conference, those noted for their wisdom and deliberations.

The year in the Paducah district has been a most prosperous one and Dr. Blackard carries with him a fine report to make on the conference floor.

Interviewed today by a Sun representative, he quietly smiled when asked whom would be sent to Broadway charge, and said "a good man." He declined to say whether he would make any change in the pastors at Trimble and Third street charges, but did say "that as the Rev. T. J. Newell, of Broadway, Rev. T. J. Owen, of the city missions, Rev. W.

A. Watts, of Lovelaceville circuit, and Rev. R. E. Brassfield, of Barlow circuit, have served their four-year terms there will be changes in these charges."

These changes and others pending throughout the conference may mean a considerable "shake-up" in the district, however.

Dr. Blackard is expecting to rearrange the district and make some important changes in the form of several charges at the conference. There will be one or two new circuits made, one to be known as the La Center circuit. A new parsonage at La Center will go up immediately after the conference, which is only one of the many improvements outlined for the new conference year.

Dr. Blackard has been in this district only one year, but has been indefatigable in his labors and has brought the district up to the highest notch of excellence. His return has been requested by the various churches in the district and there is little doubt that he will be sent back. He stands among the foremost ministers in the Memphis conference, is a financier as well as a preacher, cordial and pleasant he has made friends everywhere.

A Church Builder.
The beautiful new Methodist church at La Center was dedicated yesterday with appropriate ceremonies by the Rev. J. W. Blackard, D. D., presiding elder of the Paducah district Methodist churches. The last dollar of indebtedness amounting to $150 was raised by Dr. Blackard at the church dedication.

This church has been built under the supervision of the Rev. T. J. Owen, and is another monument to the zeal and faithfulness of a minister who will go down in church history as a "church builder." In the year that Dr. Blackard has been in charge of the Paducah district he has dedicated four new churches: At Little Cypress, Palma, Payne's chapel near Wingo, and La Center; three of these were built under the charge of Mr. Owen, who has the enviable record of having built more than twenty churches in fifteen years. He will have to go up to conference with his enterprise of a church at Lone Oak uncompleted, but most of the subscription is already in his hands and it can be built at once.

The Rev. "Cap" Owen as he is more generally known by his friends, and they are a host, is rounding up his four years' work in charge of the city missions and will go up to the conference with an excellent report, not only in the new churches built, but in various charges established by him, the chapel at Littleville, the mission on West Tennessee street, and others. His people will regret to have him leave.

Conference Gossip.

There will be some sixty preachers whose time limit has expired, to be changed at the coming conference session at Ripley. All of the leading Memphis churches will have new pastors. There has been strong talk of the Rev. William E. Thompson, of the First church, Memphis, coming to the Broadway church, and the Rev. T. J. Newell being sent to the First church.

The Rev. W. T. Bolling, of the Central church, Memphis, has, also been spoken of for Paducah, but the Memphis News-Schmittar has him slated for Jackson, Tenn., and Dr. Thompson going to Central church, where a $150,000 merger church is being built.

SURRENDERS

BUT SAYS THERE IS NO TRUTH IN THE CHARGE.

Pete O'Brien, of Metropolis, Charged With Robbery, Appears at Police Headquarters.

Pete O'Brien, a well known young man of Metropolis, Ill., came to Paducah this morning and surrendered to the police. He is charged in a warrant with robbing, or assisting in the robbery of J. W. Gullett, of Metropolis. Gullett claims that he was "touched" Friday night while drinking with companions, and that O'Brien was one of the men he was with. The latter hearing of the charge, came to Paducah immediately to stand trial. He readily gave bond, and declares that there is nothing in the accusation. A watch and $30 were lost by Gullett.

Infant Dies.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fisher, Sixth and Adams streets, born Sunday morning, died Sunday night. The funeral will be held this afternoon.

CITY WILL PROFIT BY SALE OF CORN

Chief Wood Estimates Large Crop This Year

Expect to Raise Oats and Hay and Save City Expense for Feed for Horses.

PEST HOUSE LAND VALUABLE.

Corn for city stock will hereafter cost the city nothing, and instead of paying out money she will take it in. This statement was made this morning by Fire Chief Wood, and he has the figures to prove it. He said: "I have just finished measuring in the 20 acres of corn grown on the old pest house property this year, and estimate it from 1,300 to 1,500 bushels. The city stock will cost next year no more than 600 bushels, and the city will have a surplus of from 700 to 900 bushels to sell. I have sown 18 acres of hay, and will also put in a crop of oats next year. The council authorized the employment of a farmer to till the soil. His wages will be the only expense to the city, and we can raise from indications, more feed than the city horses can eat. The surplus can be sold and the 86 acres will prove valuable to the city."

Heretofore the farm has been idle. Chief Wood uses it for a pasture for city stock. He states that hunters keep off the farm because of fear of smallpox. Rabbits and all kinds of game abound, and Chief Wood declared that you can "knock 'em over with sticks."

The farm now presents a pleasing appearance to the eye. All buildings, stables for horses and cribs have been whitewashed, a new fence built and one would not recognize it as the old pest house property.

TOBACCO COMBINE ON THE LIST.

Government Names Special Attorney to Investigate Its Methods.

Washington, Nov. 12.—An investigation of the business methods of the so-called tobacco trust will be undertaken by the department of justice. E. N. Hill, of Boston, was today appointed a special attorney to make the inquiry. Officials of the department will not discuss the purpose of the investigation, but it is believed that a prosecution under the Sherman anti-trust law is in view.

KNIGHTS AND LADIES

GO TO JACKSON TO ATTEND K. OF C. INITIATION.

Over Sixty Present From Paducah and Put on the First Degree.—Eloquent Addresses.

Sixty Knights of Columbus and ladies went to Jackson, Tenn., yesterday and participated in the initiation and banquet given by the new council in that city. At Fulton they joined the special from Cairo and all proceeded together. Paducah Council put on the first degree and Memphis the second and third. The work of the Paducah degree team was pronounced the smoothest and most impressive ever seen by those present.

There were over 200 at the banquet and eloquent toasts were delivered by several well known speakers.

12,000 EMPLOYEES GIVEN RISE.

Workers in Alameda Copper Mines at Butte Get Increase.

Butte, Mont., Nov. 12.—Twelve thousand employees of the mines and smelters in Montana have been granted an increase of wages averaging 25 cents a day beginning Nov. 15. The increase of the Amalgamated company employees was ordered by H. H. Rogers.

There is only one kind of a newspaper circulation statement that is worth any consideration and that is the daily detailed statement. The Sun is the only Paducah paper printing such a statement.

FIRST FALL OF SNOW IS SEEN IN PADUCAH EARLY THIS MORNING

Paducah had her first snow fall today. It was not much, to be sure, and only the observant were aware of it, but a few flakes fell to earth, noticeably about 5 o'clock, and then at intervals all through the day. Sunday morning dawned bleak with wintry clouds and a keen wind from the river. The latter was rendered choppy and crested with white caps. Last night the wind increased, while the temperature did not improve any. This morning gave the impression of a real Thanksgiving freeze. Poverty for the first time rears its ugly head with the pioneer snow storm. Requests for coal and food were plenty at the city hall, and charity will find enough to do this winter.

BLUNDER CAUSES TRAINS TO MEET

Head On Collision On Baltimore and Ohio.

Locomotives Plow Through Each Other and Several People Are Killed.

WILD ENGINE STRIKES DEPOT

Chicago, Nov. 12.—All available ambulances were ordered to meet the special relief train on the Baltimore & Ohio, which arrived about noon with the injured from the wreck of two passenger trains near Woodville, Ind., this morning. A message says five are dead and 25 injured. It is rumored a number of immigrants were cremated in the fire which followed the collision.

The wreck occurred on a curve and was a head-on collision. Neither Engineer had more than time to reverse his lever and shut off the power before the crash came. The locomotives plowed through each other. Traffic is completely blocked. A blunder in transmission of orders is believed to have been the cause.

Laporte, Ind., Nov. 12.—The latest reports from the Baltimore & Ohio wreck say the wrecked train contained 167 passengers, all immigrants. Only 122 so far are accounted for, leaving the list of dead and missing between 40 and 50. Most of these are believed to have perished in the wreckage which caught fire.

Fast Mail Derailed.

St. Louis, Nov. 12.—A Missouri Pacific fast mail was derailed at Eureka last night. Twelve passengers, all from St. Louis, were seriously injured. Twenty-five others received slight hurts. Sleeping chair and smoking cars were overturned.

Engine Runs Amuck.

Detroit, Nov. 12.—A switch engine ran wild in the Michigan Central yards this morning. Before it could be stopped it crashed into the waiting room of the Third street depot, demolishing a large section of the building and burying a number of employees in the debris. George B. Booth was taken out dead. Others are seriously, perhaps, fatally injured. The engine was completely buried in the falling debris.

Harry W. Duval.

Harry W. Duval, supervisor of bridges and buildings of the Nashville division of the L. C., formerly foreman here for the Illinois Central, died in Princeton, Ky., at 10 o'clock this morning of pneumonia at the age of 36 years. He leaves a mother and a sister. Duval was well known here, where he was stationed for years. The body will be taken to his birth place, Vine Grove, Ky., and buried tomorrow.

Charles Taylor.

Charles Taylor, 23 years old, died of fever last night at 12 o'clock at his home, 147 Clemens street. He was a blacksmith and well known in Mechanicsburg, where he had lived two years. The body was taken to Oakland, Ky., for burial.

The official board of the Broadway Methodist church will meet tonight at 7 o'clock at the church to prepare the report to be made at the annual conference at Ripley, Tenn.

DYNAMITE USED TO FIGHT TRUST

And Four Warehouses Were Wrecked Last Night

Buildings at Eddyville, Fredonia, Kuttawa and Princeton Are Blown Up.

GO INTO CALDWELL COUNTY

War against the tobacco trust in Caldwell and Lyon counties has taken the form of violence, and at an early hour this morning warehouses of the American Snuff company at Eddyville, Fredonia, Kuttawa and Princeton were dynamited, the buildings in every instance being wrecked.

The men who engaged in the plot are from Caldwell county, as evidenced by the action of bloodhounds from the Eddyville penitentiary which tracked them to the Caldwell county line, and there lost the trail.

The factory at Eddyville, according to a special that reached the Sun this morning, was operated by R. D. Bradshaw, for the American Snuff company. There was little tobacco in the warehouse, or in any of the others.

One end of the building at Eddyville was entirely wrecked. Windows for blocks around were broken by the detonation, and citizens, aroused by the terrific sound, rushed out of doors in their night clothes not knowing what had happened.

As soon as it was learned what had been done bloodhounds were secured from the branch penitentiary and put on the trail of the vandals, but with no success other than detecting in which direction they had retired.

The warehouses at the other places were wrecked before Eddyville was reached.

The tobacco war between the association members and the independents is bitter in that section and violence has been expected.

Killed at Football.

Great Falls, Mont., Nov. 12.—Jas. Curtis, full back for the Great Falls football team, was killed in a scrimmage while playing against the Port Shaw Indian team at Port Shaw. Curtis, who was 25 years old, was a native of Syracuse, N. Y. Internal injuries caused his death.

CONTRACT LET

MEMPHIS CONCERN WILL BUILD WALKS IN LANG PARK.

Work of Filling Ground for Terraces Is Progressing—Will Spend $1,750.

Work of paving and guttering Lang park will commence as soon as the contractor is ready. The Memphis Asphalt and Paving company secured the contract at 13 1-2 cents the foot. The whole contract will amount to $1,750. Walks around and through the park with curb and gutters will be laid. The work of filling the ground, preparatory to building the terraces toward the center, where the Confederate monument will stand, is progressing.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Convention Will Be Held at Broadway Church.

The McCracken county Sunday school convention will be held on November 20 and 21 at the Broadway Methodist church. The Rev. William Bourquin, of the Evangelical church, is the county president, and a most interesting program has been arranged. Among the speakers is Mr. E. A. Fox, of Louisville, general secretary of the Kentucky Sunday

WEATHER — Partly cloudy tonight and Tuesday. Colder tonight. The highest temperature reached yesterday was 45 and the lowest today was 34.

School association. Mr. Fox formerly lived in Paducah and has many friends here to welcome him. All the speakers are Sunday school experts. Mr. T. C. Gebauer, of Henderson, well known here, is on the program.

MAJOR MOSS' FUNERAL

Will Take Place in the Elks' Home—Walbert Camp Meets.

The James T. Walbert camp will meet tonight at 7 o'clock at the city hall to make arrangements for the funeral of Major J. T. Moss, whose remains will arrive tomorrow from the Philippines. Major Moss was a former commander of the camp. The services will be conducted at the Elks' home. A committee from the camp will be appointed to meet the body at the train. The Elks will also send a committee. The Rev. Calvin H. Thompson will conduct the funeral services.

SERIES OF MEETINGS.

May Be Conducted at Kentucky Avenue Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. W. P. Bone returned to his home in Lebanon, Tenn., today after preaching morning and evening Sunday at the Kentucky Avenue Presbyterian church. Next Sunday the Rev. J. R. Henry, of Lebanon, and Dr. B. McDonald, of Danville, Ky., will have charge of the services and it is probable that they will conduct a series of meetings in that church.

FLOWER BEDS

Of McLaughlin Took Prize on the Illinois Central.

James McLaughlin, superintendent of parks and flower beds of the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis road, went to Whiteville, Tenn., this morning to inspect the park there. McLaughlin was formerly with the Illinois Central and this morning was notified that for the sixth time he took first prize on the Illinois Central for the prettiest and best kept lawn on the system.

NEGROES KILLED IN ROW.

Two Men of Twenty-Fifth Infantry Shot and Thired Held for Crime.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 12.—During a quarrel in a gambling room of a saloon near Fort Bliss Texas, two soldiers of the Twenty-fifth infantry, the negro regiment a battalion of which was ordered discharged in disgrace from the army recently by President Roosevelt, were shot and killed. Another negro, also a member of the regiment is under arrest charged with the murder.

Tolbert Was Bowled Over.

Special Policeman Dick Tolbert, of the Illinois Central, is suffering from a bruised right shoulder, all because of a prank played by a member of the pipe fitting crew.

Tolbert shoots coal thieves with beans, using a shotgun to project the missiles. He left the loaded gun in the pipe shop. A ramrod was secured and a newspaper stuffed into the long barrels. A hammer was used in wadding it, and when Tolbert shot at a coal thief he "came to" several feet from where he stood when he fired.

FOR WATERWAYS

PADUCAH IS SHOWING HER INTEREST IN WORK.

Large Delegation Will Attend Convention at St. Louis, November 15 and 16.

The delegates to the deep waterways' convention to be held in St. Louis, November 15 and 16, who have been appointed by President Joseph L. Friedman, of the Commercial club and who have announced their intention of attending the convention are: F. L. Scott, R. A. Petter, Harry R. Hank, C. F. Rieke, S. A. Fowler, F. M. Fisher, Hal S. Corbett, Joseph L. Friedman, H. V. Sherrill, O. L. Gregory, Ed J. Paxton, F. P. Toof, and S. H. Winstead. Several other gentlemen who were appointed by President Friedman probably will attend if business engagements will permit. The party will leave Paducah Wednesday evening for St. Louis.

Many men try to find the deserving poor by looking in a mirror.

COUNCIL BOARD MEETS TONIGHT

Sewer District, No. 3, Special Order of Business

City Engineer Says That Plans Cannot Be Completed Before Next Spring.

LARGEST DISTRICT IN THE CITY.

Mayor Yeiser has called the lower board of the general council to meet tonight to consider the proposition to begin the preliminaries for sewer district No. 3, at once, which was adopted by the board of aldermen under suspension of the rules Thursday night.

The idea is to get the plans all ready so that bids for the work can be invited and the contract let in time to begin operations as soon as the weather permits in the spring.

That the council is not working any too fast is established by the statement of City Engineer L. A. Washington this morning.

"If a contract is made with Alvord, the Chicago sanitary sewer expert, to prepare detail plans and specifications at once, preliminaries can not be completed any too soon for the spring," he said.

"It will require longer to complete the details of the third proposed district than either of the others, both on account of its size and the physical conditions presented. It will require weeks to finish the plans and I doubt if they will be ready before spring even if Alvord is employed at once. Then, of course, come the advertising for bids, their opening, the letting of the contract and all the other matters that have to be attended to before the work is underway."

Sewer district No. 3 embraces all the north end of Paducah. It starts at Trimble street and the river, and follows Trimble street to Fourteenth street. It runs on Fourteenth street to Jefferson street, out Jefferson street to Sixteenth street, thence south to Broadway and out Broadway to Nineteenth street, varying slightly from the course of Nineteenth street, to include the Clinton road, and thence around to Twenty-fifth street. It follows the western and northern boundaries of the city to the river. The outlet is to be in the Ohio river below the Illinois Central incline.

EVERY STATE

In South Will Have New Bureau of Immigration.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 12.—If the leaders of the immigration movement in the south succeed in getting their plans adopted at the southern immigration and quarantine conference here, November 12 to 14 inclusive, each of the southern states will establish and maintain a state department of immigration. The conference begins its second annual meeting in Nashville Monday, and unquestionably it will be the most important meeting of the kind ever held in this country. The program calls for addresses by prominent men, and before the benediction on the third day there is little doubt but that the leaders in the several southern states will have at least agreed upon some concerted effort to get immigrants into the south.

CALL PASTOR.

The Rev. J. S. Pate Will Come to Second Baptist.

The congregation of the Second Baptist church called the Rev. J. S. Pate, of Hopkinsville, yesterday to be the pastor. Mr. Pate preached at the Second Baptist church Sunday a week ago and again yesterday. He left today for his home in Hopkinsville and will return to the city as soon as he can get his household goods packed.

TWO KILLED—DEPOT WRECKED

Boiler of Locomotive Explodes with Deadly Effect.

San Jose Calif., Nov. 12.—Two men were killed and several passengers cut with glass, four cars derailed and the locomotive blown to pieces last night, as the result for a locomotive boiler explosion at Sergeant. It is thought several tramps are dead in wreckage of the railway station. It is completely demolished.

BOY BANDITS

KILL CHICKENS AND ROAST THEM IN THEIR CAMP.

Citizen Held Up and Searched By Footpads Near Home—Out of Youthful Gang.

Boys residing in the vicinity of Sixteenth and Tennessee streets have invoked the wrath of many poultry raisers in that section of the city, and Special Policeman Dick Tolbert of the Illinois Central, has been solicited to come to the rescue by chicken owners.

Saturday afternoon a neighbor, Mr. John Evans, while going home was accosted by two footpads, but they got nothing. He secured me to assist in intercepting them," Tolbert said. "We noticed a fire in the hollow of the Thompson stock yards, and on investigation found instead of tramps as we supposed, about eight boys seated about a fire. They were cooking two chickens which they had killed with rocks.

"The boys told no stories about how they got the fowls and many complaints have been made of lost chickens."

Steps are being taken to compel the boys to desist from such practices. Some are known to the police.

SMOOTH ROAD

FAILED TO JAR LIGHT POCKET-BOOK OF ENGINE.

John Huntsbury Dropped His Money Through Cab Floor and Recovered It.

"Speaking about good road beds, the Louisville division of the Illinois Central has got 'em all beat," was the declaration of Engineer John Huntsbury of the Fulton-Louisville accommodation run. He knows what truth there is to the statement because it was the means of his saving a "tanner" Saturday.

Huntsbury was "pulling" No. 122, the morning accommodation train. At Little Cypress he reached into his overalls pocket and accidentally pulled out his pocketbook. It fell through a hole in the cab floor. Huntsbury thought his pocketbook, which contained a $10 bill, was lost forever.

When Louisville was reached Huntsbury found the rear driver running hot. While inspecting it he beheld a familiar object—his pocketbook. It had alighted on the narrow frame of the engine. But for the smoothness of the road bed it would have been shaken off.

Perspiring Politician.

"One night," says a friend, "I met Tim Coakley at the Parker House as he was about to start on a round of speeches. He invited me to go along, and as we stepped into his carriage he passed me a small package to take care of. Our first stop was at the old Franklin School house where Tim, as he started on his speech had on a collar that any man from Troy would have been proud of. Ten minutes later when he re-entered the hack it was a mess. Ripping off his tie, he tore the collar off and threw it out of the window, asking at the same time for the package from which he took another immaculate one. This performance he repeated at half a dozen places, and when he finally had concluded his night's labors he had left collars all over the town."—Boston Herald.

World's Supply of Iron.

It will surprise a great many people to learn that we are likely to run short of iron inside of a single century if we keep up the present rate of consumption. As a matter of fact, we are more likely to increase the consumption than we are to reduce it. The world has only 10,000,000 tons of iron ore available. Of these, Germany has twice as many tons as the United States, Russia and France each have 400,000,000 tons more than this country. Our consumption is placed at 35,000,000, which is more than a third of the world's total consumption.—Leslie's Weekly.

"There is one thing about your hotel table that is not surpassed, even at the most palatial London hotel." "And what is that, sir?" asked the landlord, eagerly. "The salt!"—Modern Society.

IF WOMEN ONLY KNEW.

What a Heap of Happiness It Would Bring to Paducah Homes.

Hard to do housework with an aching back. Brings you hours of misery at leisure or at work.

If women only knew the cause—that Backache pains come from sick kidneys.

'Twould save much needless woe. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys.

Paducah people endorse this:

Mrs. Geo. Romain, of 726 Tennessee street, says: "For three years my back was lame and ached severely, particularly under the shoulder blades, despite the use of medicine. I tried Doan's Kidney Pills, getting them at Alvey & List's drug store. They are easy to take; they cured me without causing any annoyance, and if I can judge from my present condition, when they cure you stay cured. Should attacks recur I now know what course to pursue to get relief."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Just Three-Fourths.

A colored man in the south was allowed to use a piece of land on the condition that the owner should receive one-fourth of the crop. When the crop was ripe the colored man hauled three loads to his house and none to that of the owner of the ground. A few days later the colored man and the owner of the ground met. "I see you have your share of the crop," said the owner of the ground. "Now, where's mine?" "You ain't got no share," was the reply. "What?" exclaimed the owner. "Why wasn't I to have one-fourth of the crop?" "Yes, sah," said the colored man, "but dey want no fourth. Dere want but jest my three loads." — Army and Navy Life.

What a Jubilee Is.

Some years ago, before Queen Victoria's death and about the time that the queen's jubilee was to be celebrated, the following conversation between two old Scotch women was overheard one day on a street corner in London:

"Can you tell me, wumman, what is it they call a jubilee?"

"Well, it's this," said her neighbor. "When folk has been married twenty-five years, that's a silver wuddin'; and when they have been married fifty years that's a golden wuddin'. But if the mon's dead, then it's a jubilee."—Harper's Weekly.

SILENT SMITH'S WIFE

Will Be Ostracized by Friends of First Husband.

New York, Nov. 12.—The power of public opinion will prevent James Henry Smith—"Silent Smith"—and his newly wedded wife formerly Mrs. Rhinelander Stewart, from returning to New York this winter. A few weeks ago it was announced that Smith had purchased a diamond tiara and necklace for his wife at a cost of half a million dollars, with which she would dazzle her old friends on the golden horseshoe at the Metropolitan opera house this winter. They may never come. The circumstances of Mrs. Smith's divorce and her prompt re-marriage were such that social leaders here have conveyed to her the likelihood that she would meet with a very cold reception. Rhinelander Stewart, her former husband, is a general favorite here, and although of the bluest blood is a rather poor man. He is heart broken at his former wife's action. "It is awful," he said recently. "But now that she has married a man with money, I hope she will be happy."

Society has espoused his cause, although he has displayed no animosity toward his former wife.

CHEAP LOW PRICED SMALL HOMES

Near city, fertile, high, dry land, in best neighborhood; Have just platted into lots of about five acres each the 240 acre (Williams) tract, joining the Pines lands on west. Bounded next to city by Perkins Creek and Pines lands between, Buckner Lane Road and Hinkleville Gravel Road. Has 4138 feet frontage on Buckner Lane Road, said road just graded in front of this land. Has 757 feet front on Hinkleville Gravel Road, and plat gives 40 feet cross roads through the tract, so that each and every lot fronts either on these gravel roads or these newly opened roads. Most of the lots front at each end on these roads. No nicer land in McCracken county. The 20 acres front on Hinkleville road has nice grove of forest trees on it and lays so as to make ideal residence sites.

Price on the Hinkleville road front is $100.00 per acre, of which $10.00 cash and balance in monthly or quarterly payments running five years. All other lots $65.00 acre on same terms. While these prices are uniform, there is difference in desirability of lots and first customers get choice. Come and see plat and list men who have taken dozen lots before I could get the parcels staked off. For home or investment lots you lose opportunity if you fail to take this. On one lot is new 5-room house which is priced at $800 additional to cost of land at $65.00 acre.

On His Ear.

A member of the Philadelphia bar tells of a queer old character in Altoona who for a long time was the judge of a police court in that town.

On one occasion, during a session of his court, there was such an amount of conversation and laughter in the courtroom that his honor became very angry and confused. Suddenly in great wrath he shouted: "Punch."

"Silence, here! We have decided above a dozen cases this morning, and I haven't heard a word of one of them!"—Harper's Weekly.

Lady Gushington—So your son is a real author! How distractingly interesting! And does he write for money? Practical Dad—Yes, I get his applications about once a week—daily in great wrath he shouted: "Punch."

OF INCENDIARY ORIGIN FIRE

Friend Probably Telephoned
In The Alarm

Entire Stock of Groceries and Part of Building at Eighth and Jones Lost.

ALL COVERED BY INSURANCE

Fire broke out in the rear of the first floor of the Meadows & Ford grocery, Eighth and Jones streets, Sunday morning shortly before 5 o'clock and burned his entire stock of goods valued at $1,000.

Some one telephoned the alarm to Central station and when the companies arrived the flames had gained considerable headway.

The fire seemed to have caught in the rear and the draft made it burn fast. The front room upstairs was saved and also a portion of the lower floor. The entire stock of groceries was ruined by smoke and water. Meadows occupied the upstairs portion and his furniture will be a total loss. Meadows carries insurance on his stock and household goods. The building was owned by Henry Foreman and is insured fully. The total damage is estimated at $1,000. Chief Wood declared this morning that the fire was of incendiary origin. He is unable to learn who telephoned the message. The night watchman at the Dixie Mills across the street did not phone in the alarm and did not discover the blaze until the alarm from No. 1 station sounded.

A Second Blaze.

At 6 o'clock Sunday evening the department was summoned to 516 Tennessee street, an unoccupied house. The house was afire on the roof, caused by sparks dropping from a flue. The house was being prepared for occupancy and was owned by Mike Isman. The damage was light.

Patented Airship Rudder.

Engineer John Deviney, of the Paducah-Louisville Illinois Central highball passenger runs, has turned inventor, and has received a patent on a patent airship rudder, which will be given a trial this week by an aeronaut in Louisville. Deviney's home. Deviney has been interested in airships since the experiments began in Louisville several weeks ago. He noticed that trouble was experienced with the rudder, the weather conditions affecting it. Some days flight was impossible because of the winds. He has devised a rudder which he thinks will make it possible to ascend and guide an airship with certainty in all kinds of weather.

Race Horses Travel in Style.

Horses travelling in style will pass through Paducah over the Illinois Central this afternoon and Tuesday afternoon on the regular passenger flyer, No. 101, from the East to New Orleans. They are race horses, and some of the best in the country. Two baggage coaches will be brought through at 6 o'clock tonight, and tomorrow another baggage car full of steppers and jumpers will come through. They are billed for New Orleans for the regular fall races.

Shop Men Put Out Blaze.

The private fire department at the Paducah Illinois Central shops was called out this morning between 3 and 4 o'clock by the shop whistle alarm. Two alarms were sent in. A cinder car in the pit was afire, and the firemen extinguished the blaze with little damage. The night private fire company is composed of the round house crew. In cases of big fires the day force is called from bed.

Off the Beaten Track.

The old captain whose seafaring days were over looked from the easel to the artist and back to the easel again with a tolerant smile.

"Hanging around the wharf as I

he said in a friendly tone. "Going to paint the sea, I take it. Well, I'm glad to see you sitting down to it."

"Don't the others sit down?" asked the artist.

"Most of 'em do," said the captain, "but there was one woman kep' walkin' round, holdin' up a pencil an' squintin' her eyes. Finally she got where the view seemed to please her, but she kep' steppin' back and an' steppin' back, till at last she stepped off."

"No great harm done," added the captain stooping to look more closely at the picture on the easel. "We fished her out, an' I guess after that she was content to paint common."

WOULDN'T YOU LIKE TO SELL THAT REAL ESTATE?

If you read the newspapers, you have noticed that we do not list your property and then forget about it.

We do not fill out a card, giving a description of what you want to sell, file it away and let the dust accumulate until it can't be read.

The owners of property placed with us for sale or rent have learned to look in the newspapers for a full description of their real estate, for they know that we do not wait for inquiries.

We Go to the Buying Public and Tell Them What We Have to Offer

We do this not only through personal solicitation but through the columns of the newspapers, for we believe in "printer's ink," and lots of it. You get the benefit of our liberal advertising.

Any business man or business woman will grasp at once the immense advantage which we are thus offering and will recognize that, in many instances, property which is still "listed" would have been sold months ago if a full description of it had been placed before the public and followed up by personal solicitation among a large number of people whom we know are interested in real estate and have the money to buy.

It doesn't matter what you have to offer, if the price is right. There is no lack of buyers, for we frequently have demands that cannot be fully met with what we have on our list. Place your property with us and let us show you what energetic, intelligent effort will do.

Daily Thought.

"Every time you waste a penny you mar a dollar."

OUR EXPORT TRADE.

After Rockefeller's warning that the government's interference with interstate commerce is hurting our prestige and trade abroad, the government's export statistics for the month of September are interesting, and especially that part concerning the value of meat products shipped to foreign countries, for Rockefeller made an illustration of the effect on the European mind of the president's message relating to the condition of Chicago packing houses.

The report speaks for itself. Here are the words of the report:

The value of meat and dairy products exported from the United States in the month of September, 1906, was $16,008,270, against $12,799,893 in September, 1905, and $11,894,822 in September, 1904. For the nine months ending with September the value of meat and dairy products exported was $147,795,647, against $122,544,314 in the corresponding months of 1905 and $109,269,576 in the corresponding period of 1904. The only class of meat products showing a marked decline in exports is canned beef, of which the exportations for the nine months of the present year are $1 million pounds, against $2 1/2 millions in the corresponding months of last year, a part of this decline being due to a large reduction in the demands from Japan.

Members of the general council are the direct representatives of the people. It might be said, of course, that all elective officers are representative of the people in a way; but the general council is a meeting at regular intervals of a body composed of men from each subdivision of the city and the city at large, delegated to act for the people on all matters of municipal business directly affecting their constituents.

It is to the general council the people look to see their interests protected, and it is this delegated authority that makes the council more representative than the executive branch of the city government. Both legislative and executive branches have their functions, but the scope of the council's authority in a city is broader than that of the executive, the latter, with the mayor at the head, being divided into different departments, each with limited and well defined jurisdiction. Even within its own province each department of the executive branch is under the supervision of the general council. Naturally, the confidence the members of the general council repose in the efficiency and integrity of the head of any of these various departments will have much to do with the attitude allowed it; but at best, the pictures placed on the executive by the law and the general confidence of the people to men used to they may be excused for mild, executive-session protests. It is said to be wonderfully soothing under such circumstances to be able to publish one's complaint, so one can read it aloud to himself and agree with it.

Frank McMullen, president of the National Association of Underwriters, says the $21,000,000 misappropriated by the big insurance companies in 10 years represents but 2 cents on each dollar of the $982,000,000 collected in premiums. Why, sure! And compared with all the money in the world it is a mere bagatelle. How we quibble over trifles. Let us turn our attention to building libraries and founding great institutions of learning.

If American heiresses would exercise as much shrewdness in securing husbands as their old fathers did in acquiring their fortunes, could buy cheaper counts and dukes that would look just as big to us, and the wives themselves wouldn't look any smaller to Europe.

So, Count Boni's wife will lose her divorce suit rather than divulge the names of the co-respondents in the case, for fear they and their friends may ostracize her. If that is the kind of society she is trying to move in, she doesn't deserve any relief.

It is surprising how calm a general council can remain when a member of some city department wriggles out from under the councilmanic thumb long enough to shake his fist at the august body and threaten it with the penitentiary.

Tom Bigfoot, an Indian runner entrusted with the ballots in Nevada, has disappeared with them. The fellow they entrust with the ballots in Chicago is called "Big Mitt."

Theatrical Notes

Tuesday Night—"45 Minutes from Broadway."
Friday Night—"A Crown of Thorns."
Saturday Matinee and Night—"The Girl of the Streets."

Manager Roberts had a big sale for "45 Minutes from Broadway" this morning. The balcony was nearly sold out at 11 o'clock. There are plenty of good seats left down stairs, however. Cairo reports the entire house sold out there in an hour and a half.

Forty-Five Minutes from Broadway. "Forty-five Minutes from Broadway" the music play from the prolific pen of the hardworking and energetic George M. Cohan, is so well known by reputation to the majority of our theatergoers that the announcement of its forthcoming production at the Kentucky tomorrow night, conveys with it more than the usual interest. This play has enjoyed a remarkable career ever since its first production over a year ago, attaining a degree of popularity seldom scored by any production in recent years. It has played two engagements in Chicago covering a period of thirty weeks, while New York thought so well of it that it crowded the Amsterdam theater for twenty weeks. The entire season and most of the last summer, the play remained one of the principal attractions in these two cities, making a record for theatrical receipts that are almost sensational in their figures. This season Messrs. Klaw & Erlanger are sending the play on tour with a remarkable cast of favorites headed by Corinne and with a scenic production gorgeous and complete in every detail, requiring two of the largest baggage cars for its transportation. The three scenes shown in the play are said to be of mammoth proportions. The engagement is being looked forward to with much interest, and will doubtless prove one of society theatrical events of the season.

Big Theatrical Trust.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 12.—A giant theatrical trust, embracing a syndicate that will carry with it more absolute power than the Standard Oil company and which intends to control every department of the show business in the United States, is being promoted under the direction of Klaw and Erlanger who will organize a theatrical corporation with a capital of $50,000,000. Ultimately this great amusement octopus intends to control not only every theater in the United States, but absolutely to dictate terms to every owner and producer of plays, the actors who are employed in them, the writers of plays, the composers of operas and the men who manufacture and supply the properties. It has developed that the octopus has adopted a unique scheme for freezing out their aggressive rivals, in that they are cleverly allowing them control of certain theaters, at the same time grasping more thor-

WITHDRAWS CASE AGAINST COUNCIL

Paducah Distilleries Company Drops Mandamus

Rehkopf Given Until Later to File Schedule and Answer Before Referee.

HAS RETURNED FROM A TRIP

The mandamus case of the Paducah Distilleries company against Henry Bailey, city clerk, and the board of aldermen to compel the clerk and aldermen to issue the firm a liquor license, was dismissed without prejudice.

The case of Anna B. Scott against the Illinois Central road was continued by agreement.

The jury in the case of Jesse J. Knight et al against the Paducah Box & Basket company returned a verdict for the defendant. The action was for $2,000 damages for the loss of his finger in the defendant's plant.

A judgment for distribution was filed in the case of William Turnbo against Sarah Brown.

Courtney Long was allowed $74.55 for taking Agnes Hollman to the reform school.

H. J. Foster, W. J. Whitehead, J. W. Spence and E. D. Thurman were excused as petit jurors, and P. G. Childers, C. C. Rose, A. T. Bohannan substituted.

Rehkopf Given More Time.

The examination of E. Rehkopf individually, and as the head of the bankrupt firm of E. Rehkopf Saddlery company, was postponed from this morning until Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock by Referee E. W. Bagby. Rehkopf has been out of the city but returned a few days ago. He has not completed a full schedule of liabilities and assets of the firm and for this reason the examination was postponed.

Judge Evans has appointed George W. Long, United States marshal, temporary receiver for the E. Rehkopf Saddlery company, bankrupt estate.

Commissioner's Sale.

Master Commissioner Cecil Reed this morning sold property in four actions in court as follows:

In the case of E. P. Weeks against Willie W. Weeks property at Second and Washington streets, was sold to Roy W. McKinney for $17,550. It is the Weeks grocery store property. In the same suit property at Tenth and Monroe streets was sold to Frank M. Fisher for $1,610.

In the action of John Rock, assignee, against the Paducah Towing company, the steamer Mary Michael and barges were sold to F. W. Katterjohn for $2,000.

In the action of R. P. Stanley against William Stanley, partition suit, property in the county known as the old Ratcliffe farm, 97 acres, beyond Maxon Mills, was sold to Charles M. Leake for $4,200. He will convert it into a stock farm and make it his summer home.

In the case of Gip Husband against Sam Holland, property at Seventh and Boyd streets was sold to L. D. Sanders for $325.

For $5,000 Alimony.

Attorneys Eaton & Boyd filed suit this afternoon against Edgar J. Harvick for Ella R. Harvick, asking for a divorce, $5,000 alimony and the custody of their child, Edgar Harvick. Her grounds are cruelty and failure to support. Harvick has been in the restaurant business here.

A delegation of eleven Elks from the lodge of Marion, Ill., spent Sunday in the city. They came here to look over the new Elks' building to get ideas for a new lodge building their lodge in Marion will build. It is probable that they may secure the services of a Paducah architect. In the delegation were: L. W. Barton, D. T. Hartnell, Nook Payne, B. B. Slade, Fred Slotter, L. A. Coly, H. V. Ferrell, Frank Powell, Sego Click, Paul Colp.

The result: The anti-syndicate crowd, the trust claims, will have more theaters than they have plays, and will be placed in the awkward position of being unable to keep going their permanent houses through a lack of attractions. The $50,000,000 corporation has back of it Klaw & Erlanger, Al Hayman, Charles Frohman, Nixon & Zimmerman, the Keith & Proctor Vandeville association, the Western Vandeville Managers' association, Stair, Havlin & Nicoil and the Empire Circuit, the lat-

FOR FIFTEEN DAYS CAT LIES BURIED

Under Four Tons of Coal Shut In By Brick Walls

Has Nothing to Eat or Drink During the Whole Period of Its Imprisonment.

EMACIATED BUT RECOVERING

For fifteen days a cat was buried under two loads of coal in the coal house back of B. J. Billing's Job Printing plant, 122 Broadway, until dug out last Saturday. When dug out, the cat was still alive though it had become emaciated.

Two men dug for several hours Friday night trying to get through the thick brick walls of the coal house, but found they had started in the wrong direction. Saturday morning they began digging again and pierced the walls, releasing the cat from its prison.

During the fifteen days the cat had absolutely nothing to eat or drink. That the cat was buried under the coal house with four tons of coal over it, was discovered by some of the employees of the printing company hearing a faint "meow." For several days the "meow" was heard but it was Friday night before it was located.

The cat was under the floor of the coal house. It had gotten under the floor through a hole, and when the coal wagon driver began to shovel the coal into the house, he placed a board over the hole. When two wagon loads had been emptied into the house, the cat had four solid brick walls on each side and four tons of coal overhead to prevent its exit.

It was October 28 when the coal was placed in the house. Saturday, November 10, the cat was released from its prison. There is no telling how much longer the cat would have lived, but it will recover. The employees of the printing shop fed the cat and today he is showing some spirit.

The river fell .3 in the last 48 hours, the stage this morning being 5.9. Business at the wharf was fair.

"Till hell freezes over then we'll run on the ice." That was the answer made to the question, how long will the Evansville packets be able to run at the present rate of fall in the river?

Speaking of the fall of the rivers, all three, Cumberland, Tennessee and Ohio are getting to a lower point than they have been this year. It is probable that several of the big packets which started out a few weeks ago may have to tie up again.

The Harvester arrived Saturday night with a row of 28 empties from New Orleans and left this morning for Pittsburg.

The tail was where the head ought to be this morning with the Evansville packets. The John S. Hopkins was here but ought to have spent Sunday in Evansville, and the Joe Fowler was at Evansville but should have spent Sunday here. Little water and less labor has reversed the schedules of these boats.

Having had to tie up every night till daybreak, the Georgia Lee was 48 hours late, arriving from Cincinnati. The water is so low that it would have been dangerous for the big steamer to run in the dark. It is uncertain whether the Georgia Lee will attempt another trip with the river at its present stage. They're going to keep on running till they stop, anyhow.

The Clyde will arrive out of the Tennessee river tonight and leave Wednesday for the same river.

Little more than caulking was found necessary on the Shiloh and that boat was let off the ways today, leaving after dinner for the Tennessee river. Capt. Kell is in command. The Shiloh is a mail boat.

The Butteroff again skipped the Clarksville trip this week, and will not leave Nashville till this evening. It should have been here this morning to leave for Clarksville, but running conditions are poor.

The Lizzie Archbold an Illinois Central tug came up from Brookport today after ties.

The United States steamer Lookout arrived last night from Tennessee river for coal and stores, and left today on the return trip. The Golden Rod is a short distance up the Tennessee river.

The Inverness left for the Tennessee river after ties for the Ayer-Lord Tie company yesterday.

The Russell Lord arrived today from St. Louis where it had carried a tow of ties.

The Dick Fowler had a good trip to Cairo and way points this morning.

The Rigors of Cold Weather.
Probably at no time of the year does the physical condition of the body demand more attention than just at this season, the beginning of cold weather.

Let the system be run down, or the blood impoverished to any extent and the cold weather goes hard with you. Naturally the thing to do is to get the circulation in good order, and the whole system toned up to stand the rigors of winter.

Some physicians prescribe the daily cold bath, others seek recourse in blood tonics and other stimulants, but, probably the most rational treatment of all is the Osteopathic, as Osteopathy more quickly, and more effectively rights the blood flow and restores normal conditions than any other known treatment.

Osteopathy is only a natural treatment, a method of bloodless surgical manipulations to remove any obstructions interfering with the proper transference of nerve force, or natural blood flow, or the other fluids, to the organ or part involved.

I should like to have you call and let me tell of some Paducah people whom you know well that Osteopathy has done much for, and also to tell you what it will do in your particular case.

Beautiful Home Wedding.

The wedding of Miss Mildred Loving Soule and Mr. William Kirkham Coolidge, of Memphis, Tenn., was beautifully solemnized this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Nelson Soule, on North Fifth street. It was a pretty ceremony held by the charm of simplicity, and was in keeping with the girlish charm and daintiness of the pretty bride.

The stately old-time southern home was an attractive arrangement of white and green with touches of pink; and southern smilax and white chrysanthemums were used throughout the hall and parlor. In the dining room the pink and green idea was prettily elaborated. The table was arranged with white open work cover over green. The centerpiece was a bride's basket of pink carnations and ferns, and pink tulle hung from the chandelier to the four corners. Pink ribbons and fern added a graceful touch.

The bride was lovely in a charming frock of Alice blue with lace yoke and trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. She was preceded by Miss Lucyette Soule and Miss Julia Dabney, daintily gowned in white and pink organza and carrying pink carnations. The ceremony was said by the Rev. T. J. Newell, of the Broadway Methodist church. Mrs. Samuel H. Winstead played the Mendelssohn wedding march.

A delightful reception followed the ceremony. Receiving in the parlors were: Mrs. Nelson Soule, Mrs. Lulu Soule, Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge, Dr. and Mrs. Newell, Dr. W. E. Cave, Mrs. Loving West, Memphis; Miss Reed Watt, of Frankfort; Miss Lucyette Soule, Miss Julia Dabney, Mrs. H. S. Wells, Mrs. H. P. Sights, Miss Mary Cave, Miss Sadie Smith.

Mrs. Eli Boone and Mrs. Hal Corbett were stationed in the hall and at the dining room were Mrs. Harris Rankin and Mrs. Linnaeus Orme.

In the dining room were: Mrs. Mrs. Charles Emery, Mrs. A. S. Dabney, Miss Mary Ferriman, Miss Happy Newell, Miss Mary Linn, Miss Kathleen Whitefield. The ices and cakes carried out the pink and green motif.

The "Bride's Book" was in charge of Miss Elizabeth Atkins and Miss Ella Wilhelm.

Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge will leave at 6 p. m. for Chicago and points in Wisconsin. They will make their home in Memphis.

Mr. Sam Jackson Marries Arkansas Girl.

Of the recent wedding of Mr. Sam R. Jackson, a popular Paducah boy and son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Jackson, of 837 North Sixth street, now located in Hot Springs, Ark., a Hot Springs paper gives the following:

"At the palatial home of Mrs. W. T. Pyne on Rector Heights today at high noon, Mr. Sam R. Jackson and Miss Charlotte Bayley were married, Rev. Lewis Powell officiating. It was a beautiful but unostentatious home wedding, attended only by relatives and a few very intimate friends. The couple left on the 2 o'clock train for New Orleans, whence they will sail for Havana, Cuba. After spending several weeks on the "Pearl of the Antilles" they expect to sail for the east, spending some six weeks in New York and other eastern cities, returning home about January 1, and take up their residence in the Tomblin Plaza, Prospect avenue. Mr. Jackson has been a leading druggist of this city for many years and is also president of the Arkansas State Fair association. Miss Bayley was reared from childhood in this city, being a sister of Mr. B. Frank Bayley, assistant superintendent of the U. S. reservation, and a niece of Mrs. Pyne at whose home the wedding occurred. Her parents were prominent citizens here for many years but have passed away. Both the bride and groom are widely known and have a host of friends in this city who wish them well in their new and sacred relation."

DEATHS OF A DAY

Mrs. L. A. Urbansky.

Mrs. L. A. Urbansky, wife of the well known clothing clerk, died at Riverside hospital Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock of complications resulting from an operation for tumor two weeks ago. She was 30 years old and had been a resident of Paducah several years. She leaves a husband and three small children, besides her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Goldsmith, of Omaha, Neb., and the following brothers and sisters: Nellis Goldsmith, Omaha; Sam Goldsmith, Louisville; Mrs. M. Steinfeld, of Paducah; Mrs. L. Dreyfuss, City, and Miss Hannah Goldsmith, Omaha. The funeral was held at 1 o'clock from the residence, 412 North Fourth street this afternoon. The pall bearers were Morris Hirschfeld, Abe Levy, Sam Cohen, Morris Marx, Morris Swope and Joseph Desberger.

Mrs. Martha French.

Mrs. Martha French, 93 years old, died of general debility and complications Sunday morning at his home on the Hinkleville road back of Oak Grove cemetery. Perhaps these places are accursed by the deeds that have been done there. Who can tell?

Could the trees—the two gigantic elms that stood by the river's edge—could these have spoken, they might perhaps have told the tale of this little inland station in that country where, as the founder of the hamlet was in the habit of saying, no one knows what is going on.

All went well with the retreating column until they were almost in sight of Msaia, when the flotilla was attacked by no less than three hippopotamuses. One canoe was sunk and four others were so badly damaged that they could not be kept afloat with their proper complement of men. There was nothing for it but to establish a camp at Msaia and wait there until the builders had repaired the damaged canoes.

The walls of Durnovo's house were still standing, and here Guy Osgard established himself with as much comfort as circumstances allowed. He caused a temporary roof of palm leaves to be laid on the charred beams, and within the principal room, the very room where the three organizers of the great simiacine scheme had first laid their plans, he set up his simple camp furniture.

Osgard was too great a traveler, too experienced a wanderer, to be put out of temper by this enforced rest. The men had worked very well hitherto. It had, in its way, been a great feat of generalship, this leading through a wild country of men unprepared for travel, scantily provisioned, disorganized by recent events. No accident had happened, no serious delay had been incurred, although the rate of progress had necessarily been very slow. Nearly six weeks had elapsed since Osgard with his little following had turned their backs forever on the simiacine plateau. But now the period of acute danger had passed away. They had almost reached civilization. Osgard was content.

When Osgard was content he smoked a slower pipe than usual, watching each cloud of smoke vanish into thin air. He was smoking very slowly this the third evening of their encampment at Msaia. There had been heavy rain during the day, and the whole lifeless forest was dripping with a continuous, ceaseless clatter of heavy drops on tropic foliage, with an amalgamated sound like a widespread whisper.

Osgard was sitting in the windowless room without a light, for a light only attracted a myriad of heavy winged moths. He was seated before the long French window, which, since the sash had gone, had been used as a door. Before him in the glimmering light of the mystic Southern Cross the great river crept unobtrusively, silently to the sea. It seemed to be stealing away surreptitiously while the forest whispered of it. In its surface the reflection of the great stars of the southern hemisphere ran into little streaks of silver, shimmering away into darkness. All sound of human life was still. The natives were asleep. In the next room Joseph in his hammock was just on the barrier between the waking and the sleeping life, as soldiers learn to be. Osgard would not have needed to raise his voice to call him to his side.

The leader of this hurried retreat had been sitting there for two hours. The slimy moving surface of the river had entered into his brain; the restless silence of the African forest alone kept him awake. He hardly realized that the sound momentarily gaining strength within his ears was that of a paddle—a single, weakly irregular paddle. It was not a sound to wake a sleeping man. It came so slowly, so gently through the whisper of the dripping leaves that it would enter into his slumbers and make itself part of them.

Guy Osgard only realized the meaning of that sound when a black shadow crept on to the smooth evenness of the river's breast. Osgard was eminently a man of action. In a moment he was on his feet and in the darkness of the room there was the gleam of a rifle barrel. He came back to the window—watching.

He saw the canoe approach the bank. He heard the thud of the paddle as it was thrown upon the ground. In the gloom, to which his eyes were accustomed, he saw a man step from the boat to the shore and draw the canoe up. The silent midnight visitor then turned and walked up toward the house. There was something familiar in the gait—the legs were slightly bowed. The man was walking with great difficulty, staggering a little at each step. He seemed to be in great pain.

Guy Osgard laid aside the rifle. He stepped forward to the open window. "Is that you, Durnovo?" he said, without raising his voice.

"Yes," replied the other. His voice was muffled as if his tongue were swollen, and there was a startling break in it.

Osgard stepped aside and Durnovo passed into his own house.

"Got a light?" he said in the same muffled way.

In the next room Joseph could be heard striking a match, and a moment later he entered the room, throwing a flood of light before him.

"Good God!" cried Osgard. He stepped back as if he had been struck, with his hand shielding his eyes.

"Save us!" ejaculated Joseph in the same breath.

The thing that stood there, sickening their gaze, was not a human being at all. Take a man's eyelids away, leaving the round balls staring, blood streaked; cut away his lips, leaving the grinning teeth and red gums; shear off his ears—that which is left is not a man at all. This had been done to Victor Durnovo. Truly the vengeance of man is crueler than the vengeance of God! Could he have seen himself, Victor Durnovo would never have shown that face, or what remained of it, to a human being. He could only have killed himself. Who can tell what cruelties had been paid for, piece by piece, in this loathsome mutilation? The slaves had wreaked their terrible vengeance; but the greatest, the deepest, the most inhuman cruelty was in letting him go.

"They've made a pretty mess of me," said Durnovo, in a sickening, lifeless voice, and he stood there with a terrible caricature of a grin.

Joseph set down the lamp with a groan and went back into the dark room beyond, where he cast himself upon the ground and buried his face in his hands.

"O Lord!" he muttered. "O God in heaven, kill it, kill it!"

Guy Osgard never attempted to run away from it. He stood slowly gulping.

"Good God!" cried Osgard.

ling down his nauseating horror. His teeth were clenched; his face, through the sunburn, livid; the blue of his eyes seemed to have faded into an ashen gray. The sight he was looking on would have sent three men out of five into gibbering idiosyncrasy.

Then at last he moved forward. With averted eyes he took Durnovo by the arm.

"Come," he said, "lie down upon my bed. I will try to help you. Can you take some food?"

Durnovo threw himself down heavily on the bed. There was a punishment sufficient to expiate all his sins in the effort he saw that Guy Osgard had had to make before he touched him. He turned his face away.

"I haven't eaten anything for twenty-four hours," he said, with a whistling intonation.

"Joseph," said Osgard, returning to the door of the inner room, his voice sounded different; there was a metallic ring in it—"get something for Mr. Durnovo; some soup or something."

Joseph obeyed, shaking as if ague was in his bones.

Osgard administered the soup. He tended Durnovo with all the gentleness of a woman and a fortitude that was above the fortitude of men. Despite himself his hands trembled, big and strong as they were. His whole being was contracted with horror and pain. Whatever Victor Durnovo had been, he was now an object of such pity that before it all possible human sins faded into spotlessness. There was no crime in all that human nature has found to commit for which such cruelty as this would be justly meted out in punishment.

Durnovo spoke from time to time, but he could see the effect that his hissing speech had upon his companion and in time he gave it up. He told haltingly of the horrors of the simiacine plateau; of the last grim tragedy acted there; how at last, blinded with his blood, maimed, stupefied by agony, he had been hounded down the slope by a yelling, laughing horde of torturers.

There was not much to be done, and presently Guy Osgard moved away to his camp chair, where he sat staring into the night. Sleep was impossible. Strong, hardened, weather beaten man that he was, his nerves were all a-tingle, his flesh creeping and jumping with horror. Gradually he collected his faculties enough to begin to think about the future. What was he to do with this man? He could not take him to Loango. He could not risk that Jocelyn or even Maurice Gordon should look upon this horror.

Joseph had crept back into the inner room, where he had no light, and could be heard breathing hard, wide awake in his hammock.

A Longish Walk.

A Chicago hotel man tells of a night watchman in his employ a few years ago who did not take very kindly to a system adopted to go through the hotel at certain hours and touch a set of electric buttons, thus indicating his whereabouts at a given time.

After a while the night watchman rigged up an automatic arrangement on several of the buttons, so that they would report at certain hours. Soon this button device got so out of order that the management were "onto" the little scheme, and admonished the culprit that a repetition of the offense would result in his dismissal. A pedometer was, moreover, given to him, which would register every step he took.

All went well for a time. One morning, however, the watchman was missing. On search being made, he was found asleep in the engine room, and the pedometer so attached to the piston-rod of the engine that with every stroke it registered a step. It had been traveling all night, and when taken off it registered two hundred and twelve miles.—Harper's Weekly.

AN AGED PHYSICIAN.

After Years of Experience Gives the Following Advice.

"If you have anything to do with medicines at all be pretty sure you know what you are taking."

Our local druggist, W. B. McPherson, says that is a strong point in favor of their valuable cod liver preparation Vinol. Everything it contains is plainly printed on the label, therefore it is not a patent medicine.

Vinol contains in a highly concentrated form all of the medicinal elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cods' livers, but with the useless, nauseating oil eliminated and tonic iron, which is a needful constituent for the blood, added.

This is the reason that Vinol accomplishes such wonderful results in curing chronic coughs, colds, bronchial and lung troubles, and there is nothing known to medicine that will so quickly build up the run down overworked, tired and debilitated, give strength and renewed vitality to the aged, as Vinol.

We can only ask every person in Paducah who needs such a medicine to try Vinol on our offer to return their money if it fails. W. B. McPherson.

Note—While we are sole agents for Vinol in Paducah, it is now for sale at the leading drug store in nearly every town and city in the country. Look for the Vinol agency in your town.

GALLINGER BLUSHED.

Senator Gallinger who is the moral mainstay of the senate, was trying to get his colleagues to agree to change the name of Madison street in Washington to Church street. A part of Madison was known as Sampson street. Senator Daniel did not like the idea of dropping the Virginia president's name even for the pious name of "Church," so he objected. He asked his New Hampshire brother about the matter and learned that there were six other Madison streets in Washington, and finding from this that Virginia pride might be appeased in the nomenclature matter, Daniel asked why the whole street couldn't be called Sampson.

"I won't know that I ought to tell the reason publicly," said Mr. Gallinger, "but Sampson, for whom the street was named, was a fine man and a part of Sampson street now has on it many low resorts."

"I take it," said Senator Daniel quickly, "that my colleague has this information at first hand."

The Virginia senator only meant the thing as a gentle jest, but Jacob Gallinger, who is a very rock in the steadfastness of his morality, was rather upset. The senate changed the name of the street so quickly that the proceedings fairly outran the hands of the stenographers, the incident was closed and Gallinger's blush fled.—Chicago Post.

One Declined.

Many years ago, says the Boston Post, a Philadelphia clothing manufacturer received a contract for making uniforms for the telegraph operators along the line of one of the railroads. In order to measure the operators along the line he sent telegrams asking them to meet him on the station platforms.

He sent this telegram to the operator at one of the small stations: "Meet me on the arrival of the 2:15 p. m. train. Wear nothing but shirt and trousers."

At the appointed time he reached his station and inquired for the operator. He saw a young woman looking embarrassed. She said, in answer to his inquiry:

"I am the telegraph operator and am here in response to your summons, but I decline to comply with your instructions as to apparel."

Material for Tobacco Pipes.

The making of tobacco pipes from the calabash is said to be an African industry which could be introduced with considerable profit in the United States. Smokers who have used the calabash pipe assert that it is far superior to the best French briar, having a peculiar softness and flavor. The curved stem of the vegetable forms a light and appropriate shape for pipes. A calabash pipe has about the same life as a French briar, colors like meerschaum, and will take a high polish.

The calabash will, it is believed, grow steadily in some parts of America, and pipes made from them would probably find a ready sale at a good price. The African pipes sell from $1 to $60 each, according to type and finish.—Harper's Weekly.

BRIDE DISOBEYS WAR DEPARTMENT

Stowaway On Board Transport Ship For Philippines

President McKinley's Niece Accompanies Her Captain When He Leaves.

FORGIVEN BY THE OFFICERS

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 12.—Calmly disobeying and defying the whole United States government, President Roosevelt included, Mrs. Grace McKinley Heldt, niece of the late President McKinley, disguised herself as a cavalry captain, stowed away on the transport Dix at Seattle and accompanied her husband to the Philippines.

It was the little god of Love that triumphed in the battle with the war department, winning where the diplomacy of other nations could not. And it all happened because the United States government attempted to interfere with the happy honeymoon of a girl who would not take "No" for an answer.

Wouldn't Break Rules.

In July Miss Grace McKinley was married to Capt. Grayson Heldt of the Eleventh cavalry at Des Moines. They expected to spend their honeymoon in the states. But the war department had other plans. It was an order for Capt. Heldt to proceed forthwith to the Philippines. His wife accompanied him to Seattle, where he was to take the transport Dix, a provision ship. But his wife found herself barred by government red tape a mile high. Women were forbidden to travel on that particular transport.

In her despair the girl bride appealed to Secretary Taft and next to the president. Both said the rules could not be broken. Then Mrs. McKinley interceded in the girl's behalf without success. The lovers parted tearfully at the wharf. Mrs. Heldt said she could not bear to see her husband sail away. Then she hurried to the hotel. She hastily donned one of the captain's old uniforms and proudly walked aboard. In the bustle of getting away she was unobserved.

Faint and Hungry.

Three days later a steward discovered the girl stowed away in the hold, faint from loss of food. In that condition her husband found her. There was a joyful meeting, though under unhappy circumstances. The ship officials finally forgave the girl and promised to take her to Manila. Word of her escapade came in a letter which Mrs. Heldt wrote to a friend here.

The Best Guaranty of Merit Is Open Publicity.

Every bottle of Dr. Pierce's world-famed medicines leaving the great laboratory at Buffalo, N. Y., has printed upon its wrapper all the ingredients entering into its composition. This fact alone places Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines in a class all by themselves. They cannot be classed with patent or secret medicines because they are neither. This is why so many unprejudiced physicians prescribe them and recommend them to their patients. They know what they are composed of, and that the ingredients are those endorsed by the most eminent medical authorities.

The further fact that neither Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the great stomach tonic, liver invigorator, heart regulator and blood purifier, nor his "Favorite Prescription" for weak, overworked, broken-down, nervous women, contains any alcohol, also entitles them to a place all by themselves.

Many years ago, Dr. Pierce discovered that chemically pure glycerine, of proper strength, is a better solvent and preservative of the medicinal principles residing in our indigenous, or native, medicinal plants than is alcohol, and, furthermore, that it possesses valuable medicinal properties of its own, being demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic, and a most efficient anodyne.

Neither of the above medicines contains alcohol, or any harmful, habit-forming drug, as will be seen from a glance at the formula printed on each bottle wrapper. They are safe to use and potent to cure.

Not only do physicians prescribe the above non-secret medicines largely, but the most intelligent people employ them—people who would not think of using the ordinary patent, or secret medicines. Every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's medicines has the strongest kind of an endorsement from leading medical writers of the several schools of practice. No other medicines put up for like purposes has any such professional endorsement.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. One "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. Druggists sell them, and nothing is "just as good." Easy to take as candy.

CORN AND HEMP

WILL HAVE BUMPER CROPS IN KENTUCKY THIS YEAR.

Other Products Will Not Show Such Good Yield—Commissioner Reports.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 12.—Commissioner of Agriculture Hubert Vreeland today issued the following crop report for the month of October showing a bumper crop of corn and hemp for the year, while other crops are given in detail. The report says:

The wet weather prevailing in September continued in the first week of October, and wheat seeding and corn gathering was prevented. Since then the weather has been favorable and this work has proceeded without interruption. The acreage of wheat sown will be short, being $9 per cent, as compared with 1905. That which was sown early is coming up nicely, and with favorable conditions, a good stand is predicted.

The corn yield will be larger, being rated at 102 per cent, compared with 1905, which was also a large yield. Corn is damaged from the hot weather, and lack of sunshine, maturing badly, and at least 20 per cent of the crop will be unmarketable.

Winter oats. The acreage will be short on the crop, being $0 per cent, as compared with 1905.

Acreage on rye and barley about up to an average.

In the barley district and also the dark district, no improvement is shown in condition of the tobacco crop. A severe freeze occurred on October 10 and found much tobacco uncut in the field, which was a total loss. The damage on burley from the various causes is estimated at 24 per cent., and the estimated yield is only 56 per cent.

In the dark district reports indicate that the crop is damaged 20 per cent., and the percentage of the tobacco crop will be of poor quality. Meadows and pastures are good, and all live stock in fine condition. Very little disease exists among stock. Mules are high and in good demand.

Labor is very scarce in all sections.

Life is a serial story written by Fate, and the author is thoroughly one that knows how the plot will eventually end.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Bigotry puts blinders on the best men.

When men pray for harvest they often get a plow.

It's the common virtues that make uncommon saints.

Love never knows hardship, even when it meets it.

The principle of expediency expels all other principle.

Whatever is saved by selfishness is lost to the true self.

The only wealth you can possess is that you have in the heart.

A man's holiness is to be measured by the happiness he creates.

Love enables a man to reach the limit of either happiness or misery.

The only way to reach heaven is by attempting to realize heaven now.

Today Germany furnishes five-sixths of the dyes used in the world.

A woman considers a man worth only what she can induce him to give up.

Our idea of a modest man is one who can keep his opinion of himself to himself.

It takes a woman to make every word tell when it comes to imparting secrets.

Men dislike to blame themselves for their own faults, so they blame women for theirs.

A woman's face may be her fortune, but a man's cheek often enables him to acquire a fortune.

What a delightful old world this would be if fussy people would only lose their tempers for keeps.

When a bachelor wants to make a married man angry all he has to do is whistle the wedding march.

AUDACIOUS THIEF ROBS SHOW WINDOW

Smashes Glass With Brick And Makes Escape.

Third Street and Broadway, at 2 a. m. Sunday, Is Scene of His Operations.

NAGEL & MEYER ARE VICTIMS.

Some audacious thief hurled a brick through a plate glass show window of Nagel & Meyer's jewelry store, Third and Broadway, Sunday morning at 2 o'clock, grabbed out one gold watch case, and escaped. The crash was heard by Merchant Police-man James Presnell but he was too far away to intercept the fleeing window smasher.

Presnell was standing at Third street and Kentucky avenue. He heard a crash and when the jewelry store was reached found the window broken and fragments of glass lying on watches, pocketbooks and other valuables. In his haste the window smasher secured only a watch case. Had he taken pocketbooks he would have been better repaid for his trouble. Ignorance of the value of the contents of the window or fear of arrest explains the small haul made.

The window is fully insured, and the watch case number is known to the proprietors. They have telegraphed the Jewelers' Security Alliance, New York. The association has a standing offer of $100 reward for the arrest of any burglar or thief who makes its members victims.

An author, paying his first visit to a married acquaintance, asked the name of a sprightly little girl whose winning ways had attracted his attention.

"We call her Ella," said the child's mother.

"That is a good name," remarked the author. "It has been made classic by Charles Lamb."

"Well, to tell the truth," explained the lady, "her name is Cornelia, but it's easier to call her Ella."

"I see," the caller rejoined. "It is the painless extraction of the corn!"

"He's a popular man," said the observer of politics "but he never seems to be lucky." "No," answered Senator Sorghum, "he is one of the people who always have our admiration before election and our sympathies after."—Washington Star.

Hoax—My wife is going to wait for me at the gates of heaven, if she's the first to go.

Joax—You shouldn't be so mean as to make her wait through all eternity just because she has made you wait occasionally.—Cincinnati Tribune.

"But, candidly now, have you what you may fairly call letters, in America, I mean, in the highest, broadest sense?" "Letters? Wait till you see the headlines in our newspapers some day when there's been a real snappy murder or something."—Puck

Recent investigations show that snails have a sense of smell, which, however, is not localized, but extends over the greater part of the body.

"CROSS EYES"

You can't afford to neglect your child's visual sense.

Cross eyes in children are frequently the result of muscular weakness, which may be overcome with proper glasses.

If you have a child thus afflicted get our opinion.

And don't forget the earlier the easier in eye care.
